

People and Places

Mrs. Henry Bonar, Tampa, Fla., president of the Eastern Federation of Mineralogical Societies, will be in Macon this weekend for the third annual All Georgia Rock Swap and Show. The event will be held at the Georgia State Farmer's Market, Eisenhower Parkway, Saturday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Sunday from noon to 6 p.m. The show is sponsored by the Mid-Georgia Gem and Mineral Society and will feature exhibits of rocks, gems, minerals and jewelry.

David Orr, Macon, was the first-place winner of Mercer University's second annual creative writing contest. He was awarded $100. The competition was in poetry and it was judged by Michael Mott, poet and writer-in-residence at Emory University.

Julie McMillan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E.C. McMillan, Macon, has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Furman University, Greenville, S.C.

The Southwest High School will present the play "Stranger in the Night" Thursday at 8 p.m. in Willingham A gymnasium. Admission to the public will be 50 cents.

Charles W. Hancock, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hancock, and Curtis A. Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby J. Sims, both of Warner Robins, have been awarded scholarships by the North Carolina State University Pulp and Paper Foundation.

The Washington Memorial Library and all public library branches will be open as usual during the Memorial Day weekend.

Jonesco Academy will hold a flea market and craft and antique show Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. Barbeque will be served from 4:30 to 8 p.m. and square dancing will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Emily Braswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Braswell, Macon, has been elected a marshal at Georgia Southwestern College, Americus.

"The Fiction of Flannery O'Connor" is the name of a special course to be offered at Georgia College, Milledgeville June 20 through July 20. The course will be offered from 12:40 to 2:40 each day and may be taken for graduate or undergraduate credit or audited.

The Eastside Recreation Center is registering boys 7 and 8 years old for Tee League baseball. Registrations are May 14 and 21 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Fee: $7.50, this includes insurance, T-shirt and cap.

Mrs. Bonar With Gem Tree

Dedicated Americans